

ALEXANDRIA LUNDQUIST

Strategic Communications Intern

Alexandria is a Strategic Communications Intern at The DeBruce Foundation and is a Junior at Colorado Christian University where she is double majoring in Business Administration and Marketing. She has been a part of The DeBruce Career Corps since its founding in 2018, where she assisted in the planning and organizing for Sink or Swim, a career workshop for students, and participated in the testing of the Agile Work Profiler.

During her time at CCU, she has served on the Freshman Orientation Hospitality Team, where she welcomed all the new students and served on the marketing team. Along with this, she was an overnight host for prospective students on their visit to CCU. Alexandria loves serving and caring for others and making an impact in her community and beyond. In her free time, she enjoys spending time outdoors and skiing in the nearby Colorado mountains.
