

GRACE GARNER

Strategic Communications Intern

Grace Garner is a Strategic Communications Intern at The DeBruce Foundation and student at the Lincoln University of Missouri, an HBCU in Jefferson City. Grace is earning her B.A. in Graphic Design and is eager to complete her MA Degree soon after. She has previously interned at The Florida Aquarium, The Food Bank for Central & Northeast Missouri, and Lincoln University of Missouri and freelanced as an Illustrator for children's books. She also has participated in organizations such as The JC Art Foundation, MizzouThon, and the 62nd & 65th Regiments Legacy Foundation Inc. As an Academic Scholar. Outside work, Grace is an avid walker and explorer, always searching for new adventures with friends and family, a fandom and pop culture lover, and an avid artist and museum lover
