

CRAIG MOORE II

Partnership and Special Projects Manager

Craig Moore II is the Partnership and Special Projects Manager at The DeBruce Foundation, dedicated to economic equality and diversity. With over a decade in Kansas City's entrepreneurial ecosystem and workforce development, Craig focuses on enhancing economic ecosystems, promoting thriving wages, and fostering entrepreneurship in underserved communities.

Craig has created platforms advancing diversity, equity, and inclusion (DEI) within the corporate and community sectors. His efforts enable organizations to set and achieve DEI goals and measure their impact. Recognized as a 2022 KC Biz Journal NextGen Professional and a 2023 Heartland HATCH Fellow, Craig serves on the Board of the Heartland Black Chamber and advises startups and nonprofits.
