

SYDNEY BOYD

Strategic Communications Intern

Sydney Boyd is a Strategic Communications Intern at The DeBruce Foundation and a senior at the University of Missouri – Kansas City where she is double majoring in Political Science and French with a minor in International Studies.

She has been active on campus, holding several leadership positions through her sorority, Chi Omega. Sydney served as the Director of IDEA (Inclusivity, Diversity, Equity and Accessibility) for her chapter in 2023, as well as Vice President of IDEA for the entirety of the Panhellenic community on campus. In these roles, she was able to serve her community through education on a range of topics including historical and current activists from marginalized communities, hate speech & microaggressions, and how to recruit inclusively. Sydney is also an intern on campus for the Political Science and Philosophy department. Before interning with The DeBruce Foundation, Sydney worked with the Alliance Française de Kansas City (AFKC) as an Events & Marketing Intern.

In the future, Sydney hopes to continue to work in the non-profit sector serving the Kansas City community and to continue her studies to earn her master's in International Affairs to pursue her dream of policy writing.
